The daily bulletin of the Edmonton Summer Regional

Issue 2

TEACHING ACCREDITATION PROGRAM

As part of our regional agenda, the Edmonton Regional Committee hosted an ACBL Teaching Accreditation Program [TAP] on Monday and Tuesday. Twenty-four aspiring bridge teachers from Alberta and Saskatchewan completed the course. The TAP is a 10-hour interactive course that focuses on successful bridge teaching techniques. It uses the ACBL Bridge Series to demonstrate these techniques. The TAP was updated in 2007 to address the changes in the revised teaching materials and expanded to showcase materials and ideas from a number of top ACBL professional teachers.

Congratulations to these 24 TAP graduates. Piotr Klimowicz, Leslie Pettie, Gwendolyn Mansell, Jo-Anne Willman, Bill Cox, Gaye Chisolm, Judith Town, Bryant Town, and Sandra Hlus, all from Edmonton; Gary Pool from Morinville, AB; Herta Doherty from Westlock, AB; Jim Wallace, Sheryl Roesch, and Patricia Young, all from Red Deer; Ken Scott, Lore Shymanski, Karen Mitchell, M. Sami Naydani, Jan McLeod, and Lance Cooke, all from Calgary; Lynne Dutton from High River, AB; Marlene Nelson from Strathmore, AB; and Gladys Foster and Gaylene Spence from Regina, SK.

Thank you, TAP students, for attending and supporting our 2008 Regional. And thank you to Marilyn Kalbfleisch, ACBL TAP instructor.

Mavis Bergquist
Regional Chairperson

The directors are just doing their jobs. Why do people take it personally when the director makes what they perceive to be an unfair ruling?

CROSBY SPEAKS

This is a continuation of yesterday's article on dealing with the "best lie" that is often called for when bidding

5-4-3-1 distribution hands.

You hold ♠x ♥KQJ ♦Jxxx
♣AQxxx and open 1♣; partner responds 1♠. Rebidding 2♣ with your hand is kind of lame, I would suggest. If partner holds, for example, ♠Axxxx ♥Axxxx ♦xx
♣x, she will pass 2♣. So why not rebid 1NT so you can find your ♥ contract?

And consider this: you hold ♠AKx
♥J10xx ♦K ♣AJxxx. This is another 5-4-3-1 indescribable semi-balanced hand. Let's get the lie over with early and open 1NT. Note: I am not recommending bidding NT with a singleton as a matter of course. However, with 5-4-3-1 distribution and no suitable alternative, bidding NT with a stiff can be the "best lie". Bidding NT with a singleton is an exception to the rule. However, rules are made to be broken in the appropriate circumstances.

When you do not have a fit and either partner jumps to 3NT, 4♣ or 4♦ should not be Keycard Blackwood. Rather, this should be a natural suit slam try in a suit that you originally suppressed to show point count. Slams in NT can be bid quantitatively. You do not need ace-asking bids every time you bid a slam. When one hand shows 17 HCP and you also have 17 HCP, just bid 6NT!

Note the earlier start time for the Saturday evening sessions. Bridge starts at 7:00 p.m., not 7:30.

HOSPITALITY

Saturday

GAME SHOW!

One hundred bridge players from Alberta (and points beyond) have kindly participated in a survey comprised of six questions relating to the game of bridge. Two competing teams of players will be tested on their intuition, common sense and luck when they guess which were the most popular answers to these questions. It's a fun game, and we need audience participation! Join us at the playing site room after the Saturday evening session.

Complimentary hors d'oeuvres will be served and the bar will be open.

NOTE THAT THE EVENING SESSION STARTS AT 7 (NOT 7:30)

Sunday

COMPLIMENTARY CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST

From 9 am until morning game time, a complimentary continental breakfast will be served in the playing site room. Come and enjoy!

Why do some opponents stare at declarer when declarer is planning the hand or deciding on a play? This is annoying, not to mention rude and against the rules.

THE CALCUTTA 2008

Excitement filled the air as bridge players from across three provinces gathered at the EBC early Saturday morning. It was an opportunity to renew friendships while enjoying hot coffee and donuts.

And then it was down to business. The auction portion of the 2008 Calcutta was underway. Player lists were scrutinized and deals were brokered as event organizer Chris Buchanan auctioned off each of the pairs. In all, 16 Flight B and 20 Flight A pairs were purchased.

The lunch break provided time to finalize ownership of each pair and relax before the battle began.

Married couple Vicki and Mike Moffatt from Vancouver were Flight B winners. Vicki and Mike had a slow start, posting minus scores their first day. A practical and composed partnership, they fought their way back and came out at the top.

A very different scenario played out in the A field. Edmontonians Maurice de la Salle and his occasional Vancouver partner Michael Yuen let the way throughout all four sessions over the two days. Their challenge was to maintain the lead once there. National champions Nick and Judy Gartaganis were standing second by 1/2 imp after the third session. However, a session top in the last segment clinched first place for Michael and Maurice.

A wine and cheese party and presentation of the trophies ended an exciting and well planned event.

Thank you to director Steve Bates who ensured the entire two days ran smoothly and fairly. Also, thank you to hard working EBC Manager Matthew Greenways who kept the club clean and organized, tended bar, and served the meals. Finally, many thanks to Chris Buchanan who brings youth, energy, and enthusiasm to this event. Chris spent many months organizing, planning, and contacting players to ensure a well attended and fun weekend.

60+' PARTY KICKS OFF OFF 2008 REGIONAL

In true Edmonton fashion the Regional started 3 days early with a birthday party honouring all our new Sexegenarians (15 in all!). A shortened bridge game started the evening with birthday cake, dancing and silly games following. Folks from all over B.C. and Alberta joined in the fun Friday night at the bridge club. Thanks to Patty Metcalfe who spent the winter knitting scarves and sweaters for everyone and to Rhonda for a great "birthday cake" (the bottle cake on the right).

MEET THE WALL OF FAMERS

TOM GANDOLFO

Tom was born in Vancouver, B.C. but has lived in Edmonton for a long time, now with his significant other, Leslie Pettie. Tom was a successful businessman in the lumber business. He still runs a mill part-time but has essentially retired from the work force.

Tom's main hobby is bridge. As for activities outside of bridge, he says, "Not much now. Golf once a year. Used to curl and play hockey a lot." Tom describes his start in bridge: "I played one game of bridge around 1975. It was a regional at the Macdonald Hotel. I knew this guy, Jack Smith, from one of the construction sites I worked on. He was a bridge player and needed a partner for the Saturday game. He knew I played a lot of cards and he talked me into playing. On the way to the tournament he taught me Stayman, Blackwood and NT requirements. I had no idea how we were doing but he was excited as hell. We actually qualified. That was it for my involvement in bridge until 1982 when I just walked into Peter Jones's club."

As for his attitude or philosophy towards bridge, Tom says, "As far as club games go, I'm not very serious. I laugh and have a few drinks. Other games such as CNTC, GNT, I try to play well." And play well he does. Bob Crosby recalls playing with Tom in the 2003 CNTC in Penticton. "Tom held ♠xx ♥x ♦KQ10xxx ♣KQJx. I opened 2♣, vulnerable. Tom replied 3♦ and I bid 3NT. Tom bid 4♣ and I responded 4♦, followed by Tom taking control of the hand and placing the contract in 7NT. After the opening lead by Paul Thurston, I claimed 13 tricks without playing a card. Paul's teammates were in 3NT at the other table, so we won 17 IMPS. Tom's hand evaluation and judgment impressed Paul so much that he wrote up the hand in his bridge column in the National Post." Tom has had numerous successes at the national level, has won countless regional and sectional events, and is a very popular partner. He says, "My favourite partners are Piotr Klimowicz, Kiz Fung, Maurice de la Salle, Susan Culham, Doug Deschner, Bob Crosby, and Debbie Corse, to name a few." Nobody would be surprised if Tom was on anyone's list of favourite partners. Tom has a reputation of playing the hands "double dummy". In club games, you can often tell Tom's pair number by the results on the score sheet: everyone is scoring -630, except for one -660. That pair had the bad luck to defend the hand against Tom!

Tom recently returned from the Detroit Nationals where he and his partner, Kiz Fung, were leading the NAOP at half time. They eventually were 10th overall, which attests to Tom's skill at matchpoints. He recently returned from a regional in Lethbridge where he won 76 masterpoints, plus funds to compete in the GNT super flight finals at Las Vegas this summer, having been on the winning zone team. Tom is a treasured member of the Edmonton bridge family. His bridge skill and love of the game have no equal in these parts.

To anyone contemplating learning the game of bridge, Tom says, "Just get in there and play." Tom lists his favourite tournaments as Victoria and Penticton. Tom offers this advice to bridge players: "If you want to improve at a faster rate, work with the director and come down on weekends to play rubber bridge. He will find you a suitable game at your level. You play many more hands and when you're sitting out you can watch the better players. When I started, I just watched for a couple of months. That was Peter Jones's advice. It worked. Thanks, Peter." Boy, did it ever work!

DEAR VINNIES

I have heard that some expert players play "pro". I would like to ask the likes of Piotr Klimowitz or Peter Jones to have a game with me. How do I go about doing this? Would $10 be a suitable offer of payment to play, or do I offer less (in anticipation of a counter offer)? If a game is arranged, am I also obligated to pay card fees and pay for drinks?

Not Sure

Dear Not Sure

An attractive woman can play with expert male players at no cost. They will even buy the drinks. If you are not an attractive woman, a blank check is required.

The real question is why you would ask the likes of Piotr Klimowitz or Peter Jones when the Vinnies might be available.

Yours sincerely,

The Vinnies

VANITY. THY NAME IS WOMAN

Putting this bulletin together is actually quite easy for me. I do some writing and some proof reading while my wife, Carolla, does the editing, formatting and layout. At least it would be easy if it weren't for the fact that the volunteers who run the show are inevitably women and, of course, they have other women who are their friends.

Imagine my distress when we used the picture on the left to highlight the achievement of Kiz Fung. I didn't see anything wrong with it and, in fact, my wife picked it up from an old file... so she didn't see anything wrong with it either. So... I sent a copy to the Tournament Chair (as a courtesy). I sent it to Staples for replicating. I sent it to the Edmonton Bridge Web Site. I sent it to Wasumi. And then I dozed off in my chair. All of a sudden the phone rudely awakened me. It was Ms. Fung!! Her first tactic was to deny that the photo was even of her. Then she complained that it was unflattering. Then she protested that she would never get a man if they saw that picture. Grudgingly I promised to insert the picture she sent me. And...she sent the terrible picture on the right!! In all honesty I liked the early one better, but if the one she wanted protect all males in the species... so be it.

Anyway, lesson learned. If you have to work for a woman who shares things with her vain friends, don't let her see anything in advance. Better yet, let's get some of the guys to step up and run a few of these events and give the ladies a rest. I just KNOW that it will be a whole lot easier to work with a male chair... even though the last 4 chairs I have worked with have all been women.

Finally guys, just a bit of a warning. Edmonton Cougars are a particularly dangerous species. And Kiz, this is called payback.

Bob Christie

Pictures for opening Knockout winners will appear in Thursday's edition.
