

The Regina Red Coat Regional 2011

Daily Bulletin

Tuesday Sept. 27, 2011

Congratulations to Gary Karst and Perry Khakhar the Winners of the Charity Pairs. The B event was won by Patty and Doug Kinney.

Perry and Gary winners of the Monday night Charity Pairs

For the KO players, if you survived GREAT!! For the others, been there many times, check today's schedule for your next challenge.

The Hospitality Chairman Pam Keim and her committee have done a great job. They have used what resources they have within the hotel setting to feed you right and provide you with some keepsakes. The Sunday Pizza buffet has been subsidized by more than 50%. The hotel needs to know the number who will be buying a Lunch Ticket so it will help if you buy early.

The Hospitality Committee regrets to announce that there will not be any home dinners this

Get your Sunday pizza buffet tickets at the hospitality desk. Beverage and salad included. There is a limited number available.

In 2007, many of our players visited the Peking House, for lunch or dinner for very good Chinese food. It is located at 1850 Pose St. Once again, if you show your convention card you'll receive 10% off your order. This is for dine in only and it may not apply to cocktails. Best check about that.

By now, many of you have probably found the Tim Horton's 2 blocks north on Broad St. When it was built, it was advertised as the largest in Canada. The management has donated a basket of coffees and teas. It will be drawn for later in the week. Make sure you get your name entered at the hospitality desk.

Along with Steve Bates, DIC, we have four other directors. Umpires and referees are needed in competitive sports. We need them in our very competitive game. We welcome Vince Lambert, Michael Farebrother, Martin Ware and the hometown boy Doug Rankin.

Tonight is Cookie Night!

After the last session this evening, you'll find them in the main playing area.
